Mornington's best lifestyle opportunity awaits - inspection is a must.

Escape the rat race to the coast for a life of carefree comfort with this luxuriously appointed seaside residence in the exclusive Macartans Place complex. Footsteps to Main Street and the shore, the former convent has been divinely transformed with a premium fit-out, which pays homage to the original character of the architecture. Sundrenched open living and dining are backdropped by a gas log fireplace, while French doors swing open to a tranquil alfresco terrace for outdoor dining. Residents enjoy direct gated access to the communal central courtyard, which is punctuated by a century-old flame tree and a cast of melodious lorikeets. High ceilings, Italian ceramic tiling, hardwood timber flooring, plantation window shutters and ducted heating and cooling only hint at the level of elegance and opulence awaiting, while the kitchen delights
